

Reclaimed Materials – Philadelphia Residence

When this NYC couple moved to Philadelphia, they purchased an outdated home that needed to be renovated to match their modern sense of style.

Urban Evolutions worked with STUDIORobert Jamieson, who chose our reclaimed redwood to clad a feature wall that ties together the kitchen, dining and living room. He also used our reclaimed oak flooring in his design.

We've recently wrapped up a few more projects in the Town of Brotherly Love. Read about these projects by visiting our blog.

If you'd like to discuss using our reclaimed materials in your next design, contact us today.
